

Pitching Session

Security and MilTech Solutions for the Safer Common Europe

Dr. Yevgen Rokytskyi, Dual-Use
Technologies Resource Centre, UCA

Supporting MiTech Innovations and Value-Chain

1

- Attracting investments to gaps in value chains.
- Transition from a resource-intensive to a high value-added economy

2

- Export development.
- Alignment of the economies of Ukraine and its partners
- Integration with industrially developed countries

3

- Knowledge management
- Modernization of industry, science and education

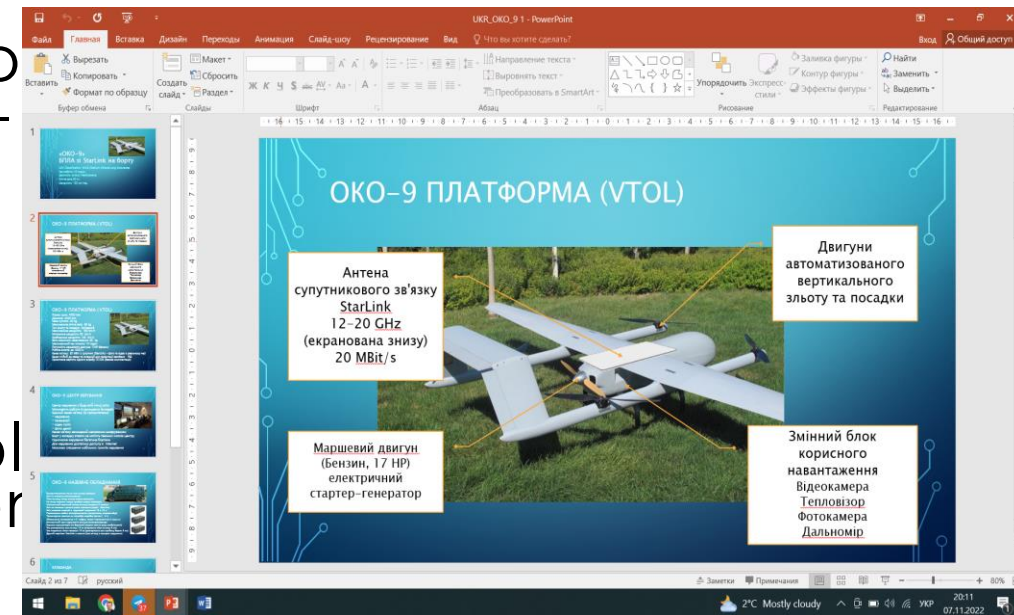

4

- Development of profiles of new economic regions of Ukraine
- Promotion of economic regions and interregional associations in the European space.

MilTech Export & Investment Promotion

Ukrainian Cluster Alliance

- Hi-TRL: UAVs (VTOL, airplane-type), Radio Electronic Warfare, Integrative Solutions – opportunities to jointly market (12+)
- Low-TRL: materials, integrative smart territory management solutions – opportunities to invest (5+)
- European Economic Grouping as a possible means of export promotion and investor support

East European Space Facilities Management Cluster Initiative

Concentration of material and technical means, the expertise provided by highly qualified staff.

Increase of the efficiency of the management, scientific, technical and educational activities of European and Ukrainian entities in the regional development and cross-border cooperation.

Faster preparation and transfer of data and analytics, based on the EOS for versatile security and resilience uses in the operation regional

Launch - May 9, Rzeszow (Poland)

“Complex Security and Resilience for the East European region, including energy, cyber and economic solutions”

